New Bill at Orpheum Tomorrow Night

With the coming of the autumn days the brilliancy of the shows at the Ogden Orpheum seems to increase. There is now a procession of magnificent acts headed this way for the delectation of the patrons of the Orpheum during the fall and winter months. One of the most delightful programs of the season is scheduled for presentation tomorrow night.
Professor Apdale's trained animals present a "Zoo circus," and from all accounts this is one of the best trained animal novelties ever imported. There are dogs, monkeys, cats and ponies, and the work of a little brown bear called "Jess" is the fea-ture of the lot. He does the most difficult sort of juggling, plays a ban-jo and rides a bicycle. Prof. Apdale also presents the only educated ante

The four Cliftons, who come to America to appear here for the first time, are world-renowned strong equilibrists, all wonderfully built men, who offer faultless, quiet and refined styles of equilibristic work. Theirs are exhibitions of strength which created wonder and admiration in principla European music halls, notably the Berlin Winter garden, where last the played abroad, and where the German writers called them "The four Hercules."

Mr. Harry Atkinson, known as "the Australian Orpheus," has been brought to America for a season on the Orpheum circuit. Mr. Atkinson comes direct from London, where he has been a big success this past year. His performance consists of imitations of musical instruments, and the reproductions of the sounds are marvelously true and accurate.

"Johnny Small and His Small Sisters" is the offering of Archie Schatz and the Misses Ada and Ethel Delberg. It consists of songs, dances and comedy patter, and is like a pretty little scene taken from a musical cmedy. Mr. Eugene C. Barnes and Mr. Paul P. Barron are two Hebrew comedians who have a great assortment of fun-making stunts that keep an audience
